Preparation, Submission and Publication of Manuscripts

Manuscripts
The Australian Community Psychologist publishes work that is of relevance to community psychologists and others interested in the field. Research reports should be methodologically sound. Theoretical or area review papers are welcomed, as are letters, brief reports and papers by newer contributors to the discipline. Contributions towards the four sections of the journal are sought.

The Australian Community Psychologist is published twice per year and online and is available via the website of the Australian Psychological Society’s College of Community Psychologists’ page (http://www.groups.psychology.org.au/GroupContent.aspx?ID=4395).

Articles
Contributions are state of the art reviews of professional and applied areas and reviews and essays on matters of general relevance to community psychologists. They may be up to 10,000 words, including all tables, figures and references; however, authors should be as concise as possible.

Research Reports
This section is for the publication of empirical research reports relevant to community psychology theory, method, and practice. They may be up to 10,000 words, including all tables, figures and references; however, authors should be as concise as possible.

Practice Issues
This section publishes individual manuscripts and collections of manuscripts which address matters of general, professional and public relevance, techniques and approaches in psychological practice, professional development issues, and professional and public policy issues.

Book Reviews
The journal publishes book reviews of up to 1,000 words. Books reviewed relate directly to the major areas of practice in community psychology.

Review and Publication of Manuscripts
The acceptable word processing program format is Microsoft Word. All manuscripts are submitted electronically to the Editors: editor.acp@outlook.com

With the exception of book reviews, all contributions are blind-reviewed. Articles submitted for review must be original works and may not be under consideration elsewhere. It is a condition of publication that authors assign the copyright of their articles to the Australian Psychological Society.
