The APS Prize is awarded to each student who gains first place at the end of an accredited fourth-year program in psychology through an Australian higher education provider.

2019 APS Prize

Ella Tremaine
Australian Catholic University
The impact of self-compassion on the relationship between perfectionism and depression in athletes

Amanda Bugbird
Australian College of Applied Psychology
Comparing the SDQ with comprehensive measures of adaptive functioning and behaviour

Nericia Brown
Australian National University
Exploring decision-making in multiple judgements of confidence in eyewitness identification tasks

Rhianna Lovegrove
Bond University
Muscle strength to mental strength: Exercise and age-related cognitive decline

Rebecca Blockley-Jackson
Cairnmillar Institute
Sexual pain and wellbeing: The role of the fear-avoidance model of pain and partner responses

Jessica Conroy
Central Queensland University
Exploring trauma-informed schooling knowledge and classroom management practices in Central Queensland catholic schools

Leah Kite
Charles Darwin University
Transition from military to civilian: Identity, social connectedness, and veteran wellbeing

Rebecca Rayner
Charles Sturt University
You snooze, you lose? The effect of ‘snoozing’ (postponing) reminders on prospective memory retrieval processes

Sarah Flynn
Curtin University
Alexithymia, difficulties in emotion regulation, emotion regulatory self-efficacy, and non-suicidal self-injury: Testing a moderated mediation model

Brenton Russell
Deakin University
The role of self-deception and time since adversity in self-perceived posttraumatic growth

Marie Smith
Edith Cowan University
Personal care workers’ perceptions and experiences of sexual expression in residential aged care facilities

Jaicee Harrison
Federation University Australia
The influence of Indigenous racial priming and stereotype consistency on eyewitness memory

Inessa Harpas
Flinders University
Does event context moderate the effect of testing on misinformation recall in the household scene paradigm?

Swaminathan Meera
Griffith University
Moralisation and personal responsibility as mechanisms of lung cancer stigma

Jessica Pryke
ISN Psychology
Prolonged calorie restriction in the ageing rat: Effects on anxiety-like behaviour at 6, 12 and 18 months

Linda Nerboni
James Cook University
Neuroticism, forgiveness, and regulatory emotional self-efficacy: Interpersonal offense victimisation and bullying scenario responses

Kira-Elise Wilson
La Trobe University
Acute and chronic fluoxetine administration differentially modulate midline ventral tegmental nucleus dopaminergic neuronal activity and exploratory behaviour in female balb/c mice

Karina Mei Li Chan
Macquarie University
Food for thought: The effect of Western-style diets on cognition and overeating
2019 APS Prize continued

Kealan Bree Pugsley
Monash University
Establishing KDM4A-AS1 knock-out model for attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder

Pek Yen Lee
Murdoch University
Child contingent self-esteem mediates the link between need frustration and psychological control

Cherie Sonnenburg
Queensland University of Technology
Postnatal depression: The role of sociocultural ideals of motherhood, shame, and belongingness

Martin Mitrevski
RMIT University
Metatraits of personality assessed in a cross-cultural meta-analysis

Leshay Wells
Southern Cross University
School teacher wellbeing: The roles of self-compassion and psychological flexibility

Elyse O’Loghlen
Swinburne University of Technology
Exploring the affect regulation model of disordered eating in the postpartum: Role of body dissatisfaction, dysfunctional beliefs about motherhood, and self-compassion

Chelsea Parsons
University of Adelaide
Inflammation and anxiety-based disorders in children and adolescents: A systematic review and meta-analysis

Sonia Curll
University of Canberra
Cure or curse? The psychological implications of identifying as overweight or obese

Joshua White
University of Melbourne
Moral judgements of fairness: Negative valence and contextual-information expectancy induce judgement uncertainty

Samuel Hatfield
University of New England
Neurodynamics of the laughing mind

Sophie Champion
University of New South Wales
Investigating the effect of expression intensity on facial mimicry responding

Thomas Goodwin
University of Newcastle
Novel indicators of cognitive impairment and neuroaxonal damage in end stage kidney disease

Alexandra Neary
University of Queensland
Effects of multitasking on interpreting a spearcon display for patient monitoring

Jordan Martenstyn
University of Sydney
Mental contrasting with implementation intentions (MCI) and goal-directed outcomes: Theoretical conceptions and comparison with solution-focused coaching (SFC) questions

Ashten de Haan
University of Tasmania
The effects of selective feedback on visual search target detection

Jalasayi Atkinson-Nolte
University of the Sunshine Coast
A qualitative exploration of perceptions of climate change in peripheral Fiji

Pheobe Ho
University of Western Australia
The relationship between social media use and shape and weight concerns: Exploring the role of media internalisation

Thomas Rout
University of Wollongong
The relationship between arousal and global alpha power in a mind-wandering context

Liana Brasacchio
Victoria University
Predictors of bystander intentions in responding to sexual and intimate partner violence against women

Jasmin Schlage
Western Sydney University
Exploring the usage of mental health applications in young people at risk of mental illness